DEMOCRATS OUT OF TROUBLE BY

Senate Amendment Raised Dissension in Party Ranks and Angered Republicans

The senate amendment, calling for free sugar in 1920, precipitated a determined opposition on the part of some members of the upper house as well as the lower house.

The Conference Committee on the sugar repeal, or extension, bill promptly went into a hard and fast deadlock. The House insisted on an unconditional abrogation of the statute, and the Senate, with equal firmness, declared there should be a four-year suspen-

At the same time there remained but fifteen days before sugar would go automatically to the free list. Opinions were freely expressed in all directions that contingency would not arise. Didn't Want Delay.

In the event that no compromise is reached by May 1, it was pointed out, sugar would be removed from the dutiable list. Legislation would be essential to either restore the duty or fix a period when its return to the free list might be accomplished. Much time would be required in arranging a bill and passing it through both branches of Congress, to say nothing of another deadlocked conference committee. While this process of evolu tion was in progress the Government would be losing at the rate of $45,-000,000 in revenues. It was to prevent such loss that the bill now under con-ideration was framed and passed. No leader in Congress pretended to predict the final outcome of the sugar problem after the Senate Financial Committee amended the House measure, limiting the repeal to a four-year extension of time. This action came extension of time. This action came as a surprise and disappointment all around. The Republicans lost all interest in the proposed legislation because an extension was not in line with the doctrine of a protective tariff. For that reason they did not support the amended plan when before the Senate. In effect they left the Democrats to work out their own salvation in a matter declared to be along the lines of a tariff for revenue only. Four Democrats Alienated.

At the same time, the amendment brought forward by the Finance Committee had the immediate effect of alienating four Democratic votes. Sen-

About the only comfort the Demo-crats obtained from the passage of the sugar bill in the Senate was that the Republicans determined at the last minute to not harry or harrass them in seeking early action. The entire range of general tariff amendments was he'd within narrow bounds. These represented nothing beyond efforts to secure the restoration of duties on dyestuffs and one cent per pound on len ons and grape fruit. Both were rejected because the Democrats could easily outvote the

If sugar had gone automatically to the free list on May 1 the Republicans would have lost some of their comlaisance. They were anxious to retain the one-cent duty, but felt as do Senators Broussard, Ransdell, New ands and Lane that no additional cap ital will be invested in the business it a time limit were imposed. It was made perfectly clear during the discussion that the cane growers of Louisiana would derive no benefit whatever from the bill as amended by the Finance PANAMA.—Higher prices and imrovements in the method of manufacture and better transportation facilities are having their effect on the sugar production of the Republic of Panama. Heavy sugar shipments are beginning to come from the large Santa Rosa mill near Aguadulce in the Province of Colce. This province is now the center of the sugar industry of the republic but probably will have a serious rival in the Province of Chiriqui when the new railway is inaugurated there. The indications are that the present season's run will be fully 30,000 sacks as compared with 17,000 last year. The product finds a ready market at $5.50 per hundredweight for the best grade, the brown sugar bringing somewhat less. Most of the sugar production is consumed within the borders of the country although a small quantity is exported to neighboring re-

Bill is Badly Beaten, 251 to 17

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.-The administration's fight for the senate Philippine bill, introduced by Senator Clarke of Arkansas, giving independence to the islands in four years' time, has been lost in the house of representatives.

Yesterday the house, after considerable discussion, struck out the entire senate bill save the enacting clause and substituted the Jones, or house bill, which says in its preamble: "It is the intention of the United States to grand independence to the Philippine Islands ultimately." No date for the granting of independence is fixed by the Jones measure, which passed the house by a vote of 251 to 17.

After defeating the senate measure and substituting the house bill, the house voted, 203 to 154, to instruct the conferees not to agree to any provision setting a definite date for the independence of the islands. Congressmen Jones, Garrett and Towner were selected as conferees for the house. Democrats Help Defeat Bill.

The Democrats did as much as the Republicans to defeat the measure urged by the administration as the bill the president wished to become law. Thirty of them joined the Republican ranks in defeating the Clarke amendment.

Resident Commissioner Manuel Quezon voiced his disappointment at the action of the house, and declared that he will not return to congress.
